

Let the children tell other examples of how the Holy Spirit helps believers to live good lives, and to tell other people what Jesus does for them.

Draw a picture of a tongue of flame above a person's head. Let the children copy it. Let them show their pictures to the adults during worship time and explain that this illustrates how the Holy Spirit comes to live in us when we repent with faith and are baptized.

Memorize John 16:13. Older children might prefer to memorize John 16:13-15.

Poem. Let three children each recite one or two of the verses from Joel 2:28-32.

Let older children write poems or songs about the Holy Spirit's coming and His work in our hearts.

Prayer: "Dear Lord, we thank you for sending your Holy Spirit to live in us. We want to use the power that He gives us, to live good lives and to tell other children about Jesus. Thank you for bringing us into your Body in congregations all around the world."

God's Holy Spirit Gave Power to Peter to Tell People about Jesus

Prayer: "Dear Lord, please give to the believing children power from the Holy Spirit whom your Father sent on the day of Pentecost. Help them to use this power to serve you and other people, and to tell their friends what Jesus has done for them."

Choose any of these children's learning activities.

Let an older child or teacher read or tell by memory the story of Pentecost from Acts 2, verses 1-24 & 36-47.

Note: This great, historical event happened when Almighty God's Holy Spirit came and gave to the followers of Jesus power to serve people and to tell them about Him.

After telling the story, ask these questions. [Answers appear after each question.]

- What things happened when the Holy Spirit first came? [See verses 1-4]
- Why were Jews visiting in Jerusalem amazed when the disciples spoke? [Verses 5-6]
- Who stood and explained to the crowd that the Holy Spirit had come? [Verses 14-16]

- What did Peter say that Jesus did after people put Him to death? [Verses 22-24]
- What did Peter tell the people to do, so that they could be saved and receive the Holy Spirit? [Verse 38]
- What activities did the first Christians start to do together? [Verses 42-47]

Dramatize parts of the story of Pentecost.

- Arrange with the worship leader for the children to present this brief drama.
- You do not have to enact the whole story. The narrator can explain what you omit.
- Use part of your time with the children to prepare the drama.
- Let older children help prepare the younger ones to prepare for the drama.
- Let older children or adults play the parts of Peter and of Narrator who summarizes the story and helps children to remember what to say and do.
- Let younger children play the parts of these Disciples and of Jews who came from many countries (listed in Acts 2:8-11: Parthia, Media, Elam, Mesopotamia, Cappadocia, Pontus, Galatia, Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, Libya near Cyrene, Rome, Crete and Arabia).
- If the group is small, then the same children can play the parts of both disciples and Jews.

Narrator: Tell the first part of the story from Acts 2:1-13. Then say, "Hear what Peter says to the disciples who were praying together on the Day of Pentecost, a few days after Jesus went up to heaven."

Peter: Look up and shout, "Listen! A loud noise sounding like a mighty wind! Look! We have flames of fire over us!"

Narrator: "Jews from many countries were in Jerusalem celebrating the feast of Pentecost. They heard the sound and ran to see what it was. They were amazed, because they heard Galileans, who spoke only Hebrew, tell them about Jesus in their own languages."

Jews: Each person says the same words but a different country that they are from:

"I hear them speak in my language. I am from Parthia."

"I hear them speak in my language. I am from Media."

(Etc.)

Narrator: Tell the second part of the story from Acts 2, verses 14-24 & 36-40. Then say, "Hear what Peter says to the Jews in Jerusalem."

Peter: "God approved of Jesus who performed many miracles. After our rulers killed him, God raised him from death! Repent and let each one of you be baptized; then your sins will be forgiven and you also will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Narrator: Tell the third part of the story, from Acts 2:41-47. Then say, "Hear what the disciples say."

Disciples: Say things like, "Now we love God." "Now we love each other!" "We want to pray and worship God together." "We take good care of each other now."

Narrator: When the drama is over, thank everyone who helped with it.

Questions. If the children dramatize this story for the adults, let them also ask the adults the questions that are listed above.
