

Believers' Children Marry Believers

Find in 1 Corinthians 11:1-3 God's pattern for Christian marriages.

- Who must be the “head” of every husband?
- Who must be the “head” of every Christian wife?

Write here reasons why you will give your children in marriage only to believers:

Discuss with your co-workers some reasons that believing parents have given their children to marry unbelievers. Tick the reasons that apply and write down other reasons.

- They want to get a dowry or bride price.
- They hope to get money, land or political power.
- Tradition says they must do so.
- They are afraid of evil magic or spirits.
- They want to please an unbelieving relative or friend.
- Other reasons:

2. Project what you and your co-workers will do during the week.

- Visit families who have little children and pray for them and their future marriages.
- Explain to parents the consequences of bad marriages with unbelievers.
- Explain to parents the consequences of good marriages with believers.
- Pray to break generational curses, bondages and obligations.
- Pray for parents to have courage and give their children to believers.
- Invite parents to dedicate their babies to Jesus during a worship meeting.
- If parents have made an unholy alliance with unbelievers, then plan with them how to break that alliance.

Sample prayer of dedication

“Heavenly Father, you created this child (say his name) and you love this child. You sent Jesus into the world to die for this child and you want him to live for you in the world and to live with your forever. We ask you to bless these parents, make them wise and help them to raise this child to honour them and to love you. Together, we present this child to you to bless in Jesus’ Name.”

3. Plan with your co-workers the next worship service.

- Read, recount or act out the story of Abraham who sought a wife for his son, Isaac (Genesis chapter 24).
- Lead the believers in a discussion of the benefits of good marriages between believing mates.
- Have the children present the drama that they have prepared.
- Hold a dedication ceremony in which the parents offer their children to the Lord and promise to give them in marriage only to believers.
- Pray for each child, that the Lord will break any curses on them and provide believing mates for them.
- To introduce the Lord's Supper, read 1 Corinthians 10:13-22.
- Form small groups of two, three or four to pray for each other's children and their marriages.
